For Immediate Release

August 29, 2011

Hopewell, VA. Hurricane Irene has passed, the City of Hopewell is in the process of damage assessment and recovery operations. Due to widespread power outages, the City in concert with federal, state and local agencies have made the following services available to citizens of Hopewell.

Monday, August 29, 2011 from 5:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. The Hopewell Community Center will provide free meals from the United States Department of Agriculture for children under 18 years of age. There is a small charge for adults in the amount of $2.50 cents per meal. For additional information, please contact Serita Jennings at (804) 541-2353/2304.

In addition, at 7:00 P.M. this evening, the American Red Cross will provide five hundred free meals in the Old Library Parking Lot adjacent to the new library located at 245 East Cawson Street.

On Tuesday, August 30, 2011 five hundred free lunches will be served beginning at 11:00 a.m., and another 500 free meals will be served beginning at 5:00 p.m., at the same location (Old Library Parking Lot).

For additional information, please contact the American Red Cross Office at (804) 458-6007.
