** Police Command Walk-City Point ****

[Hopewell, VA] – On November 03, 2011, the Hopewell Police Department will hold a “Police Command Walk” in the City Point Area to address some neighborhood and quality of life issues. The “Police Command Walk” is a means of facilitating community involvement and obtaining direct feedback in order to effectively address quality of life issues and also to support Neighborhood Watch participation in the City Point neighborhood. City officials along with members of the Hopewell Police Department’s Command Staff, Uniformed Patrol Division (UPD), Criminal Investigations Unit (CIU), Crime Suppression Unit (CSU) and Administrative Services Division (ASD) will be participating in the walk.

The “Police Command Walk” will begin at 5:30pm at City Point Park located on Allen Ave. Participants will fan out into the neighborhoods distributing Crime Prevention Tips, Neighborhood Watch information, as well as information on how to participate in the Nixle notification system.

The media is encouraged to attend this event.
