The Hopewell & Prince George County Police Departments are conducting joint investigations into the disappearance of Ivan "Country" Darnell Terry II. The family of Mr. Terry reported that he was last seen leaving his residence at 2am June 25, 2011. Mr. Terry advised family he was going to travel in his pickup truck to visit a friend in Prince George County. Mr. Terry's green Ford pickup was located abandoned by family June 26, 2011 off Puddledock Rd. in Prince George County. The area where the pickup truck was located was searched by two K-9 tracking teams with Mr. Terry not being located. Mr. Terry was last seen wearing blue work pants, black flip flops, no shirt and has the following tattoos: on his back the word "OUTLAW", left arm a skull and right arm a skull with wrenches.

Any person(s) having information on this missing person are asked to contact Master Detective Kenneth Howard of the Hopewell Police Department's Criminal Investigations Division (CID) at (804) 541-2284.
