Mayor's Corner

“UNLESS SOMEONE LIKE YOU CARES A WHOLE AWFUL LOT, NOTHING IS GOING TO GET BETTER. IT’S NOT.”

– DR. SEUSS

Hopewell needs you. Hopewell is entering a new phase in our city life cycle. We are becoming more proactive and less reactive, more positive and more self-conscious about our appearance and less tolerant of neglect and dis-repair.

We are moving forward, not looking backward. In order to be successful in this metamorphous we need help. WE NEED VOLUNTEERS.

Hopewell Police Department Awards and Recognition Ceremony

On Thursday, May 16, 2013 the City of Hopewell Police Department celebrated its semi-annual Awards and Recognition Ceremony at the Beacon Theatre in downtown Hopewell.

The ceremony honors officers and citizens who have stepped up to better their community and also remembers officers who lost their lives while on duty. The event was attended by many elected officials from the state and local governments.

Police Chief Keohane presented Police Officer Anthony Pulley with the Life Saving Award for keeping a crash victim stable and airway open until emergency crews arrived. He was the first to respond to a crash at Courthouse and Davis Lane. He saw an overturned vehicle with a victim dangling upside down in her seat. officer Pulley entered the vehicle through a back side window

As we place greater emphasis on the "look of Hopewell" we will be straining the capability of some of our elderly and disabled home owning citizens. As a result, we are looking for "A LARGE NUMBER OF GOOD CITIZENS", people who will volunteer to assist the elderly and disabled with yard maintenance. We need church groups, youth groups, school groups, military groups, civic groups. WE NEED YOU.

The City is looking into funding opportunities to assist in this endeavor and to help defray the cost of this effort. We will not volunteer to cut the grass of those who choose not to comply with our efforts, but we want to assist those who may be unable to comply. Keep Hopewell Beautiful, a council appointed committee, may well take the lead on this and the Department of Neighborhood Assistance and Planning, formerly the Department of Development, will be the contact point for those needing assistance as well as those offering assistance. Efforts are underway to get this up and running as soon as possible but it cannot work without you.

We also have a number of other opportunities for YOU to step up and help Hopewell. If your interest is in helping to repair homes, improve parks, or any number of other efforts it is likely that we have an upcoming project scheduled in which you can participate. Contact the Department of Neighborhood Assistance and Planning to get more information at (804) 541-2226.

Finally, as warm weather quickly approaches I hope that each of you has a pleasant and enjoyable summer. I hope that you will take any and every opportunity to visit Appomattox Manor, Weston Plantation, City Point, our rivers, and our parks. Please enjoy the many venues and events that Hopewell has to offer for your enjoyment.

LEARN WELL, LIVE WELL, WORK WELL, PLAY WELL, in HOPEWELL.

Hopewell High School Students Earn National DECA Honor

Hopewell High School seniors Regina Gibson, Tracy (TJ) Iler, and Ayanna Ogaldez, are recipients of the 2013 Emerging Leader Honor Award. This national achievement recognizes leadership, community commitment and professionalism among students studying marketing and management in high school.

“It’s been a fun year,” stated school and District DECA President T.J. Iler. “This was definitely a big highlight.”

The award recipient must be a DECA member in his/her senior year of high school with a cumulative grade point average of 3.3 or better for each of the high school semesters.

“These three are the cream of the crop,” smiled Hopewell High School Chapter Advisor, Phyllis Slachter. “I could not be more proud of them and their work ethic really paid off with this award.”

DECA is a Career and Technical Education student organization composed of more than 190,000 students who are interested in careers in marketing, management, finance, hospitality or entrepreneurship. DECA enhances their preparation for college and careers by providing co-curricular programs that integrate into classroom instruction, apply learning, connect to business and promote competition. DECA student members leverage their DECA experience to become academically prepared, community-oriented, professionally responsible, and experienced leaders.

Regina will attend VCU in the fall and plans to major in Biology and minor in Finance; she would like to one day work in healthcare administration/operations. Ayanna will attend VCU where she will study Business Management; she plans to become a (COO) Chief Operating Officer of a major company.

Building a Movement for Play: Non-Profit Organization KaBOOM! Names Hopewell Among 217 "Playful City USA" Communities

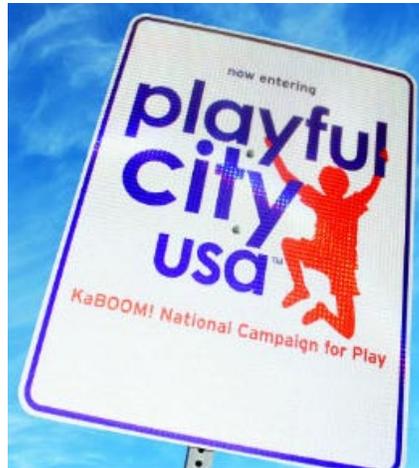

With research proving play is critical to the overall well-being of children, 217 cities and towns, including Hopewell, earned recognition from national non-profit KaBOOM! as 2013 Playful City USA communities for their efforts to give children the childhood they deserve by providing ample opportunities for play.

Today's generation of children play less than any previous generation despite the vast benefits of play. The Journal of the American Academy of Pediatrics reports that play is essential to the social, emotional, cognitive and physical well-being of children.

Sponsored by the Humana Foundation, Playful City USA is a national program from KaBOOM! that celebrates and promotes local policies that increase play opportunities for children and is a key platform in combating the lack of play among children.

KaBOOM!, the national non-profit organization dedicated to giving kids the childhood they deserve by bringing play to those who need it most, created Playful City USA in 2007 to help local governments address the lack of play and it is through mayors, city council members, parks and recreation departments, school districts and community leaders that the program succeeds in benefitting children.

"Kids need to play actively, every day, at home, in school and in their communities, yet play is disappearing," said Darell

Hammond, Founder and CEO of KaBOOM! and author of The New York Times Best Seller KaBOOM!: A Movement to Save Play. "Children spend nearly eight hours a day in front of a screen; almost half of all poor students are deprived of recess; and to make matters worse, only one in five children live within walking distance of a park. Playful City USA communities like Hopewell are creating innovative programs and initiatives and deserve recognition because of their efforts to give kids the childhood they deserve and best prepare them for their future."

KaBOOM! also selected Hopewell for its outstanding dedication to play. Hopewell is in the process of updating its joint use agreement with the local school district. As a result, the city is working with the school district to install eight additional tennis courts at Hopewell High School. To ensure children have access to playspaces, the city has an agreement with the school district to use school buses for transportation for recreation programming that has increased participation.

The 217 Playful City USA communities are now eligible for $15,000, $20,000 and $30,000 grants via Let's Play, a community partnership led by Dr Pepper Snapple Group to get kids and families active nationwide. Grant recipients will be announced in the fall.

For more information on the KaBOOM! Playful City USA program, including Let's Play grants and applications for 2014, visit www.playfulcityusa.org.

JUNETEENTH

NATIONAL FREEDOM DAY

Celebration

Are you prepared for Hurricane Season?

Hurricane Season is from 1-Jun to 30-Nov; however, severe tropical weather can produce hurricanes during any month of the year. The 6-month Hurricane Season is the period most likely for hurricane impacts to the Tampa Bay area. The huge storm system can span hundreds of miles and like a super-charged thunderstorm. Add a moving wall of water (storm surge) and you have a very destructive force of nature.

It does not matter how many hurricanes are predicted for a season, when a single hurricane can completely destroy your home and contents.

History teaches that a lack of hurricane awareness and preparation are common threads among all major hurricane disasters. By knowing your vulnerability and what actions you should take, you can reduce the effects of a hurricane disaster.

Hurricane hazards come in many forms, including storm surge, heavy rainfall, inland flooding, high winds, tornadoes, and rip currents. The National Weather Service is responsible for protecting life and property through issuance of timely watches and warnings, but it is essential that your family be ready before a storm approaches. Furthermore, mariners should be aware of special safety precautions when confronted with a hurricane.

Two keys to weather safety are to prepare for the risks and to act on those preparations when alerted by emergency officials. These are essential pieces to the Weather-Ready Nation.

Refer to the Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA) Ready.gov/hurricanes for comprehensive information on hurricane preparedness at home and in your community.

Some highlights on how to prepare and take action are available below:

GATHER INFORMATION

Know if you live in an evacuation area. Assess your risks and know your home's vulnerability to storm surge, flooding and wind. Understand National Weather Service forecast products and especially the meaning of NWS watches and warnings.

Contact your local National Weather Service office and local government/emergency management office. Find out what type of emergencies could occur and how you should respond.

CONTACTS

Keep a list of contact information for reference.

- Local Emergency Management Office
- County Law Enforcement
- County Public Safety Fire/Rescue
- State, County and City/Town Government
- Local Hospitals
- Local Utilities
- Local American Red Cross
- Local TV Stations
- Local Radio Stations
- Your Property Insurance Agent

RISK ANALYSIS

Online hazard and vulnerability assessment tools are available to gather information about your risks.

- Check your hazards risks with FEMA's Map Portal.
- Rate your flood risk with the FloodSmart.gov portal.

PLAN & TAKE ACTION

Everyone needs to be prepared for the unexpected. Your friends and family may not be together when disaster strikes. How will you find each other? Will you know if your children or parents are safe? You may have to evacuate or be confined to your home. What will you do if water, gas, electricity or phone services are shut off?

SUPPLIES KIT

Put together a basic disaster supplies kit and consider storage locations for different situations. Help community members do the same.

EMERGENCY PLANS

Develop and document plans for your specific risks.

- Protect yourself and family with a Family Emergency Plan
- Be sure to plan for locations away from home
- Business owners and site locations should create Workplace

Plans

- Make sure schools and daycares have School Emergency Plans
- Pet owners should have plans to care for their animals. The Centers for Disease Control & Prevention offer information on animal health impacts in evacuation shelters.
- Prepare your boat and be aware of marine safety if you are on or near the water.

HEALTH & ENVIRONMENT

Follow guidelines to guard your community's health and protect the environment during and after the storm.

- Review the Centers for Disease Control's (CDC) health considerations before, during, and after a storm.
- Remember to follow the U.S. Food & Drug Administration's (FDA) food and water safety guidelines during disasters.
- Review the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) suggestions for health and environmental safety in disaster preparedness.

EVACUATION

• Review the FEMA Evacuation Guidelines to allow for enough time to pack and inform friends and family if you need to leave your home. FOLLOW instructions issued by local officials. Leave immediately if ordered!

• Consider your protection options to decide whether to stay or evacuate your home if you are not ordered to evacuate.

When waiting out a storm be careful, the danger may not be over yet...

BE ALERT FOR:

- Tornadoes – they are often spawned by hurricanes.
- The calm "eye" of the storm – it may seem like the storm is over, but after the eye passes, the winds will change direction and quickly return to hurricane force.

RECOVER

- Wait until an area is declared safe before returning home.
- Remember that recovering from a disaster is usually a gradual process.
