

City of Hopewell

300 North Main Street
Hopewell, VA 23860

To: Martha Burton, Crater Planning District Commission, Petersburg, Virginia

Thur: Mark Haley, City Manager and Charlie Dane, Assistant City Manager

From : Herbert Bragg, Director, Intergovernmental & Public Affairs

Date: December 10, 2014

RE: Summary listing of the 2015 Events and Activities sponsored by the City of Hopewell Local Sesquicentennial Civil War Committee

The City of Hopewell Local Sesquicentennial Civil War Committee will sponsor the following events and or activities in support of the 150 year Sesquicentennial Civil War celebration.

March 20, 2015: A soldier Come Home play. A Matinee and an evening performance at the Beacon Theatre.

March 22, 2015: Re-enactors, Hopewell High School Band, A Soldier Come Home play, a matinee and an evening performance at the Beacon Theatre.

March 25, 2015: FREE Army Band Concert beginning at 7:00 P. M. at the Beacon Theatre.

March 26, 2015: FREE Hopewell High Choir Concert and Historian Panel Discussion "Last Week of War" narrated by Dr. Steven Anders, Co-Chair, City of Hopewell Local Sesquicentennial Civil War Committee at the Beacon Theatre.

March 27, 2015: Civil War Antiques and Road Show; presentation on Making of the Movie Lincoln discussion narrated by Professor Laurant Lee, Curator, African American Studies, Virginia Historical Society and member, City of Hopewell Local Sesquicentennial Civil War Committee. In addition, a Federalist Band Concert at the Beacon Theatre.

March 28, 2015: A National Park Service Play sponsored by the National Battlefield Petersburg Unit at the Beacon Theatre.

Note: Please remember to check the city's website at www.hopewellva.gov and Facebook page for future updates to this calendar.