Hopewell Regional Wastewater Treatment Facility (HRWTF) Employee of the Year

Bryant “Scooby” Wray was selected by his peers as Hopewell Regional Wastewater Treatment Facility’s employee of the year. Mr. Wray has been employed with the City of Hopewell since March 1987, beginning his career as a plant operator.

In 2012, Mr. Wray transferred to the HRWTF Maintenance Department where he is responsible for the maintenance of the City’s sewage pumping stations. He has demonstrated a pronounced ability to learn and adapt to new areas and equipment and has stepped up to take on the role of a lead mechanic.

Mr. Wray’s peers stated that Scooby is a loyal and dedicated employee who is kind and caring and will drop everything to help a fellow co-worker.
